

Tijdschema Gemeenschapsgerichte eerstelijnsgezondheidszorg

Course Schedule With Time Allotted in Minutes and Number of Participants for Ghent (Belgium) University School of Medicine Community-Oriented Primary Care Exercise, 2002-2007

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Friday
General Introduction (90 minutes) (all students, 1 lecturer) Visit to neighborhood (60 minutes) (groups of 20 students, 1 mentor per group) Preparation for patient interview (60 minutes) (groups of 4 students)	Interview with caregivers (30 minutes + preparation and evaluation) (groups of 4 students)	Community diagnosis (120 minutes) (groups of 20 students, 1 mentor per group) Visit with community workers (60 minutes) (small groups of 4 students)	Preparation for presentation (120 minutes) (groups of 20 students, 2 supervising lecturers for all student groups)
Interview with patient (60 minutes) (groups of 4 students) Interview with caretakers (30 minutes + preparation and evaluation) (groups of 4 students)	Community diagnosis (180 minutes) (groups of 20 students, 1 mentor per group)	Exploration of interventions (180 minutes) (groups of 20 students, 1 mentor per group)	Presentation (180 minutes) (all students and mentors + jury and invited caretakers)

BRON

Art, B., De Roo, L., Willems, S., & De Maeseneer, J. (2008). An interdisciplinary community diagnosis experience in an undergraduate medical curriculum: Development at Ghent University. Academic Medicine, 83(7), 675-683.