

Medieval Studies as Academic Discipline

28 May 2015 Zebrastraat 32, Gent

10:00 Registration

10:20 Welcome Prof. Koen Goethals

10:30 Introduction: Prof. Jeroen Deploige

10:45 Cross-cultural Research

12:15 Lunch

13:30 Multi-Period Research

15:00 Coffee/tea

15:30 Medievalisms and Heritage

17:00 Conclusion: Dr. Marjolein Stern

17:15 Reception &

Research Infrastructure Projects

Cross-cultural Research

Keynote Dr. Michele Campopiano (University of York)

Cross-cultural research, Empire and Translatio imperii

Panel Dr. Maria Conterno (UGent: Post-Imperial Historiography of Late Antiquity), Hilmi Kaçar (UGent: Ottoman State Formation and Ideology), Prof. Giovanna Lelli (UGent: Arab-Islamic Sciences), Prof. Peter Stabel (University of Antwerp: Market institutions, economic performance and social organisation)
Moderator Prof. Jan Dumolyn

Multi-period Research

Keynote Prof. Philippe Buc (University of Vienna)

Multi-period research in European History

Panel Prof. Berber Bevernage (UGent: Methodology and Theory of History), Dr. Jelle De Rock (UGent: City and Society), Prof. Koen De Temmerman (UGent: Novel Saints), Prof. Erik Thoen (UGent: CORN), Prof. Wim Verbaal (UGent: History of Latin Literature: Theories and Applications)
Moderator Prof. Youri Desplenter

Medievalisms & Heritage

Keynote Dr. Axel Müller (University of Leeds)

The Future is Medieval: The Coming Together of Impact, Heritage, and Academic Research

Panel Fien Danniau (UGent: Public History), Prof. Wim De Clercq (UGent: Archaeology), Dr. Hendrik Defoort (UGent Library: Collections), Prof. Max Martens (UGent: Art history), Elien Vernackt (Bruggemuseum: MAGIS Brugge)
Moderator Prof. Steven Vanderputten